The Coffey Corder Cemetery (later known as Bethel Cemetery) is located at 7165 Ratliff Road in Richland Township, Monroe County, Indiana. Latitude: 39 12 53.3N Longitude: 86 40 23.1W Most of the graves date from the 1830’s to the present. It is a family cemetery located on the property of Larkin Coffey, whose family moved to Monroe County from North Carolina in the 1833. The cemetery later became associated with Bethel Baptist Church, located across the county line in Owen County. The church was established in 1822 and is thus celebrating its 190th anniversary.

The cemetery has one of the loveliest settings in the county. It is located on private property so before visiting, check with the landowner. Major family names are: Allen, Coffey, Corder, Johnson, Marshall, Wilson. Veterans include James Freeman (Civil), Elijah H. Marshall (Civil), and Washington Tetters (102GOhio). One of the beautiful features of the cemetery is the area border illustrated below:
The harp atop the stone for E. H. and Rebecca Marshall is quite impressive.
To read more about this cemetery, see the Cemetery files at the Monroe County History Center, which includes a copy of Bethel Baptist Church, Owen County, Clay Township, Indiana 1822-2012 Celebrating our 190th Year.