FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BLOOMINGTON, IN – The Monroe County History Center will host its fourth annual PuzzleFest on January 26 in celebration of International Puzzle Day.

PuzzleFest has been a growing part of the Bloomington community as groups gather at the end of January to celebrate their love of puzzles. This is a celebration of all things related to puzzles – including jigsaw puzzles, crossword puzzles, mechanical puzzles, number puzzles and more! A returning favorite is the annual puzzle sale and swap where community members can purchase or swap their gently used puzzles.

PuzzleFest would not be complete without the jigsaw competition. Fourteen teams will go toe-to-toe in a competition sponsored by The Game Preserve and supported by Aver's Pizza. This year's selected puzzle will hopefully be a welcome challenge for all competitors, both veterans and newcomers alike. Following the jigsaw competition will be demonstrations by Andrew Rhoda, Curator of Puzzles at the Indiana University's Lilly Library. Marc Tsida from Press Puzzles will also be doing 3D puzzle demonstrations.

Puzzle enthusiasts are welcome to join us on Saturday, January 26 between 10:00 am and 4:00 pm. Admission to the History Center is free for the day.
